

BUYER BEWARE

The Page 3 Profile in the 30 October issue said Second World War veteran Ron Jones was still “selling poppies” aged 100. As Howard Brayton pointed out. British Legion volunteers do not sell poppies. They are given to people who make a donation to the Poppy Appeal, which can be as much or as little as the donor chooses.

i Newspaper
16/11/17